The show, like Ms. Weaver herself, is nothing short of simply sensational.

Bill Oates, East Bay Newspapers

Menopause Mama truly has the heart and soul to become a national touring sensation. Weaver's acting, storytelling and singing abilities are put to the test for this performance and she passes with flying colors. Each song in this performance is catchy and worthy of its own soundtrack. I highly recommend this performance for anyone-mother and daughter, husband and wife, female friends out on the town.
